

Deep blue sea (D)

John Mayall

My loving woman and me lying in the sand
 We are on a holiday out in a foreign land
 Sunny day
 We can play
 Lazing by the deep blue sea
 Happy now that we are free
 This is how it ought to be
 We are on our own

Take out a boat and paddle it around the bay
 Pressures from the world seem to fade away
 Sunny day
 We can play
 Sailing on the deep blue sea
 Happy now that we are free
 This is how it ought to be
 We are on our own

Go underwater and see another world of green
 Fishes go by and I get to wondering where they have been
 Sunny day
 We can play
 Swimming in the deep blue sea
 Happy now that we are free
 This is how it ought to be
 We are on our own

Sailing on the deep blue sea
 Happy now that we are free
 This is how it ought to be

Sailing on the deep blue sea
 Happy now that we are free
 This is how it ought to be

We are on our own...
